

The Teacher Education Center at University Child Development School proudly presents:

Italian Innovations in Early Childhood Education: A Tale of Two Cities

Featuring:

Lella Gandini, Ed.D.

Co-author of The Hundred Languages of Children: The Reggio Emilia Approach

& Susan Etheredge, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Education and Child Study, Smith College

SAVE THE DATES
March
18th & 19th
2008

UNIVERSITY CHILD DEVELOPMENT SCHOOL

TEACHER EDUCATION CENTER

Italian Innovations in Early Childhood Education

Tuesday, March 18, 2008, 7:00–9:00PM

Wednesday, March 19, 2008, 8:00AM–3:00PM

Presented by University Child Development School

CEU clock hours are available for the session on March 19th.

A limited number of reimbursements for classroom substitutes are available; for more information contact TEC@ucds.org

FREE

UNIVERSITY

CHILD

DEVELOPMENT

SCHOOL

5062 9th Ave NE

Seattle, WA 98105

NON-PROFIT ORG.
U. S. POSTAGE
P A I D
SEATTLE, WA.
PERMIT NO. 02488

Lella Gandini, Ed.D. and Susan Etheredge, Ph.D.

Please plan to attend these two exciting workshops!

The topics for this event will be focused on early childhood education as it relates to the Reggio Emilia Approach.

Attendance for both events is free, although reserved seating is required. For information on reserving a seat, please go to www.ucds.org/TECworkshops